

Faculty Review of Open eTextbooks

The California Open Educational Resources Council has designed and implemented a faculty review process of the free and open eTextbooks showcased within the California Open Online Library for Education (www.cool4ed.org). Faculty from the California Community Colleges, the California State University, and the University of California were invited to review the selected no/low cost and open eTextbooks using a rubric. Faculty received a stipend for their efforts and funding was provided by the State of California, the William and Flora Hewlett Foundation, and the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation.

Overall Comments

If you were to recommend this textbook to colleagues, what merits of the textbook would you highlight?

- Absolutely not. There is no way I would recommend this "book."

What areas of this textbook require improvement in order for it to be used in your courses?

- I, in no way, can approve of a book that is about half advertising. Regardless if it is free, students should not be forced to view advertising.
- Second, this is "written" by a blogger and "personal coach". Can't recommend something not by a scholar in the discipline (Seriously, go to her website. I'm stunned that this is even under consideration).
